IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS OF TEXAS

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS
10/2/2018
DEANA WILLIAMSON, CLERK

JAMES EARL WILLIAMS

Appellant

v.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

Appellee

MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE PDR

James Earl Williams moves, under Rule 68.2 of the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, to extend the time to file a petition for discretionary review (PDR).

On July 19, 2018 the Second Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the trial court in a memorandum opinion, under case number 02-17-00001-CR, styled James Earl Williams v. The State of Texas. No motion for rehearing was filed. One extension has been granted. The PDR is due September 28, 2018.

This is the second request for an extension of time to file this PDR. This motion is timely under Rule 68.2(c) and Rule 4.1(a) of the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Counsel was only recently hired on to this case, and requests time to review the record and prepare a petition as requested by Mr. Williams. Mr. Williams independently wants to raise his own issues for discretionary review, not just to respond to the State's petition filed September 19, 2018.

James Earl Williams prays that the motion be granted and the deadline for filing a brief be extended for 30 days, to October 29.
